Learn more about this recall

Description: Rivian Automotive, LLC has decided that certain model year 2023-2024 Rivian R1S, R1T, and EDV vehicles fail to conform to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard FMVSS 108 (Lamp, reflective devices and associated equipment - 571.108 S10.14.6)

The headlamps are aimed slightly too low and do not meet current production specifications or fulfill the requirements of FMVSS 108 (Lamp, reflective devices and associated equipment - 571.108 S10.14.6). Headlamps that are not aimed properly can result in insufficient illumination of the road while driving, which may increase the risk of a crash while driving at night.

Remedy: Rivian will check the headlamp adjustment on the affected vehicles and correct it, if necessary.

Glossary

First Owner

When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.

Manufacturer Recall

Automobile manufacturers issue recall notices to inform vehicle owners of a safety defect or failure to meet minimum federal safety or emissions standards. Manufacturer recalls are repaired at no cost to the customer.

Ownership History

CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1991 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Please consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.

Title Issued

A state issues a title to provide a vehicle owner with proof of ownership. Each title has a unique number. Each title or registration record on a CARFAX report does not necessarily indicate a change in ownership. In Canada, a registration and bill of sale are used as proof of ownership.
